8 Days Lord Howe Island Lorhiti Apartments Fly-Stay

About the holiday

This tiny Australian island off the coast of New South Wales is a haven for nature lovers and anyone who craves a slower pace of life!

Famous for its sandy beaches, subtropical forests and clear waters, Lord Howe Island is no ordinary Aussie island escape. In the south, a rugged trail winds up soaring Mount Gower for sweeping views of the length of the island. Ned's Beach in the north has sealife and coral-rich waters – you can even hand-feed the friendly fish from the shallows.

The island is home to seabird colonies, including masked boobies, as well as the flightless and endangered Lord Howe woodhen. Renowned for incredible snorkelling and scuba diving, many great dive sites surround the nearby Admiralty Islands.

On an island that has very few cars and allows no more visitors than residents, this magical getaway is ideal for travellers who want to switch off, slow down, relax and re-connect!

Why you'll love this trip...

Indulge in island escape where life slows to walking pace & everything you need is nearby
Enjoy staying in a boutique apartment that's located above beautiful Ned's Beach
