Day 1 - Sydney

Depart: Mon 21 November 2022 at 16:00

One of the world's great cities and harbours, Sydney always lives up to great expectations. When you are on one of our Sydney cruises, the first glimpse of the Harbour Bridge and Opera House will stay in your memory forever. Even before the 2000 Olympics, cruises to Sydney had much to offer - hosting the games just made the city even better with improved facilities and extra dining and entertainment venues all round. From the waterside restaurants fringing the historic Rocks district and the Circular Quay ferry terminal to that remarkable Opera House and the beautiful Royal Botanic Gardens. Make your own way to the port to board your exciting cruise to New Zealand!

Day 2 - At Sea

Day 3 - At Sea

Day 4 - At Sea

Day 5 - Wellington

Arrive: Fri 25 November 2022 at 08:00 / Depart: Fri 25 November 2022 at 18:00

It might be known as "Windy Wellington", but New Zealand's capital won't take the wind out of your sails on a Carnival cruise. The small but perfectly formed port city of Wellington offers waterside, foodie and cultural charms to woo the whole family. Want more? Well, the city of Wellington wraps around a stunning harbour front. For many people, Wellington is their happy place. Marvel at electric street art and a myriad of dining options. In fact, per head there are more places to grab a feed in Wellington than New York City!

Day 6 - Christchurch

Arrive: Sat 26 November 2022 at 08:00 / Depart: Sat 26 November 2022 at 18:00

Christchurch is the largest city in the South Island of New Zealand and is located in the Canterbury Region. Over 400,000 residents call Christchurch home, making it the third-most populated city behind Wellington and Auckland. Located near Christchurch, Lyttelton is a picturesque town known for its lively markets, natural beauty and historical significance.

Day 7 - Dunedin, New Zealand

Arrive: Sun 27 November 2022 at 08:00 / Depart: Sun 27 November 2022 at 16:00

Dunedin is a city with unique landscapes and interesting cultural history. Get up close to rare wildlife and take in the quirky city environment. It is the second largest city in the South Island of New Zealand and the name of the city comes from Edinburgh, Scotland. Port Chalmers has a small population of 1400 and is a great weekend trip for locals in Dunedin.

A must have photo in the National Park is Mitre Peak, a breathtaking mountain that soars 1692m above sea level!

About Carnival Splendor

It's hard to tell which onboard space best represents Carnival Splendor — they all seem to hint at the amazing time you're going to have. El Morocco Lounge hosts comedy shows, musical performances, karaoke and more... and wears its 1930s namesake clearly on its nameplate. The words "Royal Flush Casino" incite visions of winning, while our onboard jazz club — The Cool — simply says it all without saying a word. And Fahrenheit 555™ can be found not only at the height of elegant dining, but at the actual apex of the ship.

If you like your fun to flow, there are options aplenty. If you list "splishing" and "splashing" among your favourite things to do, there's Carnival WaterWorks™. Those into sitting and sliding are invited to try the all-new Green Lightning thrill-slide. How about floating or swimming around? Carnival Splendor has pools all over the place, including the midship pool featuring a retractable roof that makes any day a pool day. So whether you splish or splash, you'll find hydro-excitement galore.

If getting up and making the crowd go wild with your dance moves is your idea of a good time, Lip Sync Battle™: Carnival is our idea of a great idea. Or if relaxation is more your thing, Serenity Adult-Only Retreat™ is more your place. Or if you're looking to take relaxation to the extreme, direct your attention to the Cloud 9 Spa™, featuring more (and better) ways to kick back than just about anywhere else, on land or at sea. You haven't lived until you've relaxed in a Thalassotherapy pool, or chilled — so to speak — in a dry heat chamber.
