Itinerary

DAYS 1–2 Adelaide

Arrive in Adelaide and make your own way to your hotel, then enjoy exploring the city's many attractions. Nearby there's also the great beaches around Glenelg or you can choose to take a day trip to visit the picturesque Barossa Valley and its fabulous boutique wineries.

DAYS 3-5 Indian Pacific Adelaide to Perth

Make your way to the station to board the Indian Pacific from South Australia's cultural capital city of Adelaide to the sunny, welcoming city of Perth in Western Australia. The journey takes you through one of the world's most spectacular yet unforgiving landscapes and follows in the footsteps of hardy pioneers who forged new lives in the harshest of environments.

Celebrate the start of the journey with the 'Flavours of South Australia Welcome Dinner', held at the Adelaide Parklands Terminal. A showcase of fabulous food and world-class wine, this complimentary pre-boarding event delivers the best bottles from around SA and sublime regional offerings from both land and sea. Then settle back, relax, in the privacy of your air-conditioned cabin or head to the Outback Explorer Lounge and enjoy a welcome drink in the company of other passengers.

The first light of dawn illuminates the vast and remote emptiness of the Nullarbor as your train carries you through the longest single stretch of railway line in the world. While your watching the stunning outback unfold from the comfort of the train, indulge yourself in the fine dining experience for which the Indian Pacific is renowned. The elegant Queen Adelaide Restaurant serves up mouth-watering fare produced onboard by talented chefs, wash it down with a glass or two of fine wines from the extensive selection available. The evening offers a chance to alight at remote Rawlinna and enjoy a traditional outback dinner under star spangled Nullarbor skies.

The following morning the Indian Pacific rolls into the undulating landscape and emerald vales of the scenic Avon Valley as you approach your final destination, Perth, you've just completed an unforgettable adventure on one of the world's great railway journeys. Catch a taxi to your Perth hotel to overnight for your 2-night stay.

DAY 6 Perth

Your time is free to familiarise yourself with the city. Perth is Western Australia's smiling capital city, cerulean skies, white sand beaches and turquoise waters make it a paradise for outdoor lovers, the city is vibrant chic and modern, galleries, festivals and performance venues are cultural must-sees, a wealth of bars, cafes, restaurants and clubs cater for those in search of dining and entertainment. You can also cruise the Swan River, explore the historic port city of Fremantle or take a day trip to picturesque Rottnest Island.

DAY 7 Farewell Perth

Time to check out of your hotel in the morning and say goodbye to Perth. We hope you've enjoyed this iconic rail journey!

Please note: the day-by-day itinerary is intended as a guide only. Travel can be unpredictable and changes may need to be made for passenger comfort and safety. Weather forecasts, travel restrictions, public holidays, government regulations and road or rail conditions can all impact travel itineraries and any necessary changes will always be in the best interest of travellers and it pays to be open-minded and flexible in such instances.*

Optional Rottnest Island Tour

Travel to beautiful Rottnest Island, a low, sandy isle just off the coast of Perth. It is a dream to visit by bike. Cars aren't allowed on the island roads, meaning you can cruise along in peace and quiet, stopping off at secluded beaches to swim, snorkel and sunbathe at your leisure.

Step aboard a high-speed, ocean-going ferry to skim over the waves to Rottnest Island. Watch for shorebirds and fur seals on the rugged coast as you approach the island, and then hop off and pick up your bike right on the jetty. Strap on your helmet and get to pedalling – the whole island is yours to explore, and at just 7 miles (11 km) long, you can bike from one end to the other at your own pace. Ride from beach to beach, lock up your bike and trek along boardwalks or coastal trails and stop whenever you'd like to swim, lounge or picnic in the beautiful island surroundings. Watch for pods of dolphins and humpback whales from lookout points along the shore, and keep your eyes peeled for the island's most famous residents – adorable quokkas. You can splash into the balmy, aquamarine waters to snorkel among schools of tropical fish and bright coral, ride up to the historic lighthouse at the West End, and invent your own itinerary as you pedal from point to point. It's the perfect active outing for soaking up the sun, taking in the scenery and getting a little exercise, too, during your day on Rottnest Island.

BOOKING CONDITIONS

Please read the following information prior to making your reservation

Our full set of terms and conditions can be viewed and downloaded on our website, or supplied on request from our office. We highly recommend you read Australia & New Zealand Travel Company booking conditions prior to make your holiday reservations. This is the contract under which both parties enter, therefore we request that you only make a booking if you agree with these conditions.

This is a summary in brief for our customers:

1. Upon making a reservation with Australia & New Zealand Travel Company you will receive a booking form, which needs to be filled out and signed to confirm that you agree to the terms and conditions.
2. Your booking will then be confirmed to you in writing and you will be required to make a payment to secure your reservation (amount will be advised when booking).
3. At this time, you must take out travel insurance for your holiday to protect you against any unforeseen circumstances.

4. 90 days prior to departure you will be asked to make the balance payment for your trip (you will be notified if your supplier requires earlier payment).
5. 10 days prior to departure you will be sent your travel documents via email.

Australia & New Zealand Travel Company operates a Client Trust bank account. This means that we do not hold your money. We pay the ultimate travel providers (Suppliers) of your travel services the funds for your holiday. The Suppliers include airlines, tour operators, cruise lines, transport companies, hotels etc. We are required to pay the Suppliers deposits and final payments to secure your booking and in some instances these items are non-refundable.

If you wish to cancel you must notify us of your cancellation in writing. We will then write to the Suppliers to cancel your booking and request a refund (if applicable) for any elements of your holiday that are refundable. You will need to make an insurance claim for any travel arrangements that are non-refundable. If you have any issues during the refund or cancellation process, you have 30 days to contact our office in writing to lodge a complaint so an immediate resolution can be found for you.
